EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with James A. Leiz on June 8, 2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

With respect to claims 41-71, the claims are directed to a machine-readable medium and machine-program logic. Claims 41-71 are amended to direct to a computer-readable medium and computer-program logic. For example:

Claim 41. A computer machine -readable medium for use in interactive wagering on races that is implemented using a cellular telephone comprising computer machine program logic recorded thereon for:

Receiving at the cellular telephone racing data on races that have not been run and that a user is allowed to place wagers on;

After receiving the racing data, allowing the user to select to present the received racing data in audio form or visual form;

Presenting the racing data on the races that have not been run and that the user is allowed to place wagers on using the cellular telephone based on the user selection; and

Providing interactive options on the cellular telephone that allow the user to place a wager on a given race that has not been run using the cellular telephone.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-71 are allowed over the prior art of record.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of record are U.S. Pat No. 6,099,409 to Brenner et al, U.S. Pat No. 5,999,808 to LaDue and MOGID: Mobile Geo-depended Information on Demand by Dr Peter Balsiger.

Brenner et al disclose an interactive wagering system that allows users to place bets and view race video and audio from a user terminal.

Ladue discloses a handheld control channel application data (CCAD) gaming communicator for placing bets that can operate like a portable video caddy and contains a plurality of cellular transceivers. The CCAD gaming communicator is capable of operating as a full voice support system and is capable of downloading and displaying a slow scan video images.

The MOGID article disclose a method of user setting the preferences of mobile terminal to receive data in various formats such video or voice.

As per claims 1, 32, 35, 36, 37, 40 and 41, the closest prior art of record taken either individually or in combination with other prior art of record fails to teach or suggest a cellular telephone allowing the user to select whether to present racing data in audio or visual form after the racing data have been received by the cellular telephone.

Claims 2-31 depend upon claim 1 and have all the limitations of claim 1 and are allowable for the same reason. Claims 33 and 34 depend upon claim 32 and have all the limitations of claim 32 and are allowable for the same reason. Claims 38 and 39 depend upon claim 37 and have all the limitations of claim 37 and are allowable for the same reason. Claims 42-71 depend upon claim 41 and have all the limitations of claim 41 and are allowable for the same reason.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
